THE EXPERIENCE

- Port Arthur Historic Site is a bucket-list destination for most visitors to Tasmania. Delve into the dark history of hardship and punishment as you walk through the ruins and preserved buildings on the grounds. At select locations you have the opportunity to listen to presentations by Port Arthur's expert staff.
- Enjoy a short harbour cruise around the Isle of the Dead and Point Puer, the site of the English colonies first boy's prison. This is a good opportunity to have a warm drink, bite to eat or sample a local wine or beer.
- Get the camera ready for the stunning coastline of the Tasman Peninsula. These soaring sea cliffs will leave a lasting impression. We take you to the highlights including Eaglehawk Neck, Blowhole, Tasman Arch and Devils Kitchen.
- Explore the quaint historic village of Richmond. Walk over and under the oldest convict-constructed sandstone bridge in Australia, visit the oldest Catholic Church in Australia and peruse the antique shops and galleries. Oh, and there's an old school lolly shop for those with a sweet tooth.
